The First Week

The prayer is said before the evening meal each night. This week the first purple candle is lighted by the youngest child of the household and is left burning during the meal.

Father: O Lord, stir up Thy might, we beg Thee, and come, that by Thy protection we may deserve to be rescued from the threatening dangers of our sins and saved by Thy deliverance. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

O come, O come, Emmanuel!
And ransom captive Israel
That mourns in lonely exile here
Until the Son of God appear.

Rejoice! Rejoice, Emmanuel
Shall come to thee, O Israel!

Hail and blessed be the hour and the moment in which the Son of God was born of the most pure Blessed Virgin Mary at midnight, in Bethlehem, in the piercing cold. In that hour vouchsafe, O my God, to hear my prayer and grant my petition, through the merits of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Power of Silence

What a strange power there is in silence!

How many resolutions are formed, how many sublime conquests effected during that pause when the lips are closed and the soul secretly feels the eye of her Maker upon her. When some of these cutting, sharp, blighting words have been spoken, which send the hot indignant blood to the face and head, if those to whom they are addressed keep silent, - look on with awe, for a mighty work is going on within them, and the spirit of evil or their guardian angel is very near to them in that hour. During that pause they have made a step toward heaven or toward hell, and an item has been scored in the Book which the Day of Judgment shall see opened. They are the strong ones of the earth, the mighty forces for good or evil, those who know how to keep silence when it is a pain or grief to them.

I said a prayer for you today, and know God must have heard;
I felt the answer in my heart although He spoke no word.
I didn't ask for wealth or fame, I knew you wouldn't mind;
I asked Him to send treasures of a far more lasting kind.
I asked that He'd be near you at the start of each new day
To grant you health and blessings and friends to share your way.
I asked for happiness for you in all things great and small ~
But it was for His loving care I prayed the most of all.

The best Advent – the only Advent – is one spent in union with Mary.

God the Father has not given His Only-begotten to the world except by Mary. Whatever sighs the patriarchs may have sent forth, whatever prayers the prophets and the saints of the ancient law may have offered up to obtain that treasure for full four thousand years, it was but Mary who merited it; it was but Mary who found grace before God by the force of her prayers and the eminence of her virtues. The world was unworthy, says St. Augustine, to receive the Son of God immediately from the Father's hands. He has given Him to Mary in order that the world might receive Him through her. The Son of God has made Himself Man; but it was in Mary and by Mary. God the Holy Ghost has formed Jesus Christ in Mary; but it was only after having asked her consent by one of the first ministers of His court.

When we have handled something fragrant, our hands perfume whatever they touch. Let our prayers pass through the Blessed Virgin's hands, and she will give them fragrance. (Cure of Ars)

O Lady, thou art the Mother of Him Who pardons and of those who are pardoned; of Him Who justifies and of those who are justified; of Him Who saves and of those who are saved. O blessed confidence! O safe refuge! The Mother of God is our Mother; the Mother of Him in Whom alone we hope, and Whom alone we fear, is our Mother; the Mother of Him Who alone can save or destroy is our Mother. (St Anselm)
