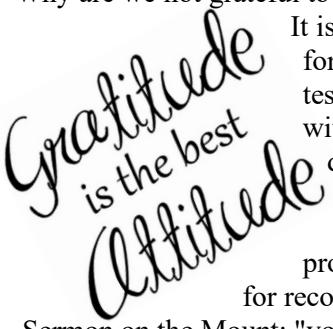
"We give Thee thanks, Almighty God"

How can the virtue of gratitude be acquired?
Cultivating the spirit of gratitude requires one to develop humility, recognizing that all we have and all we are is a gift.
We are creatures, yet the eternal, all-perfect, omnipotent, omnipresent Creator loves us unconditionally. He has given us the Catholic Church, the grace of her Sacraments and the solicitude of her pastors. On a natural level, we have our families, our homes, and all that is necessary to sustain life... Should we not always be grateful?
There is a story of man who complains to his grandfather, "Life is unbearable. There are nine of us living in one room. What can I do?" The wise old man answers, "Take your goat into the room with you. Do as I say and come back in a week."
A week later the man comes back looking more distraught than before. "We cannot stand it," he reports. "The goat is filthy." He is told, "Go home and let the goat out. And come back in a week."
A radiant man returns a week later, exclaiming, "Life is beautiful. We enjoy every minute now that there's no goat -- only the nine of us. Thank you, thank you, thank you!"
The virtue of gratitude can be expressed very simply. The phrase "thank you" should be a common part of our daily vocabulary.
G. K. Chesterton once said: "You say grace before meals. All right. But I say grace before the concert and the opera, before I open a book, before sketching, painting, walking, playing; grace before I dip the pen in the ink. When we were children we were grateful to those who filled our stockings at Christmas time. Why are we not grateful to God for filling our stockings with legs?"



It is written that "Gratitude is the most exquisite form form of courtesy." Contemplate the captivating courtesy of the Son of God. He repays a drink of water with the words of eternal life, and words spoken in His defense with a promise of Paradise "this day"!
Acquiring of the virtue of gratitude is very important. However, service to others should be provided with a spirit of detachment, not for for recognition or earthly glory. Jesus teaches us in the Sermon on the Mount: "your left hand must not know what your right hand is doing" (Matthew 6: 3). The Gospel calls us to give of ourselves unconditionally and seek eternal life in heaven as our only reward. This is true Christianity.

Deo Gratias

Thanks be to God for His goodness to me,
Thanks be to God now and in eternity.
Thanks be to God for the wonders He has done,
Thanks be to God for His dear and only Son.
Thanks be to God for our sweet Virgin Mother,
Thanks be to God for becoming our Brother.
Thanks be to God for His Body and His Blood,
Thanks be to God for this legacy of Love!
Thanks be to God for His Sacred Heart benign,
Thanks be to God for this treasure Divine!
Thanks be to God for my Angel Guardian bright,
Thanks be to God, morning, noon and night.
Thanks be to God in all ages and all climes,
Thanks be to God, a hundred thousand times.
Thanks be to God in my joy and in my sorrow,
Thanks be to God for today and for tomorrow.
Thanks be to God in my illness and my health,
Thanks be to God both in poverty and wealth.
Thanks be to God at my work and at my prayers,
Thanks be to God in my troubles and my cares.
Thanks be to God in my life and at my death,
Thanks be to God when drawing my last breath.
And when, lifeless, my poor heart
shall lie under the sod,
May my soul sing in Heaven
Thanks be to Thee, O good and generous God!

We praise Thee,
we bless Thee,
we adore Thee,
we glorify Thee,
we give Thee thanks
for Thy great glory,
Lord God,
heavenly King!
