

The Value of Blessed Candles

Blessed candles are sacramentals. This means that Holy Church by her prayers and blessings makes them sacred articles which, when used with respect and great faith, bestow countless blessings and graces on all.

On February second, which we call Candlemas, the Church blesses wax candles in a most solemn ceremony. On this day, we honor the Divine Child Jesus as a Light to illumine the Gentiles. At the blessing on this day, the priest pronounces five beautiful prayers. In the first, he addresses Almighty God: "O holy Lord, Father Almighty, Eternal God, we humbly beseech Thee that Thou wouldst vouchsafe to bless and to sanctify these candles for the service of men, and for the health of bodies and souls, be they on land or water, and wouldst hear from Thy holy heaven, from the throne of Thy Majesty, the voice of this Thy people, who desire reverently to bear them in their names and to praise Thee in song: and wouldst show mercy to all that call upon Thee."

In this blessing, the effects of the blessed candles are briefly stated. The other prayers continue to explain these effects.

If, during the year, the priest is asked to bless candles, he prays following: "O Lord Jesus Christ, Son of the Living God, we implore Thee to bless these candles, and through the power of the holy Cross to bestow upon them Thy heavenly benediction, Who has given them to mankind to dispel darkness; and may they, through the sign of the holy Cross, obtain such blessing that wherever they may be lighted or wherever they be placed, the powers of darkness may vanish, trembling and affrighted, with all their aids and accomplices, and be driven from these dwellings, and never again dare disquiet or molest them that serve Thee, Almighty God."

The above proves to us what rich blessings we derive through the merits of Jesus Christ when we use the blessed candles in a spirit of faith. When we do not make frequent use of blessed candles, we lose precious graces.

When and Why we should use Blessed Candles

Holy Church prescribes blessed candles to be used at every Holy Mass - in conferring all the Sacraments - in public processions - at Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament - in all solemn functions, and around the dead.

The Faithful should make use of them

1. In times of sickness or plague.
2. When storms are raging, on land or sea.
3. In seasons of drought or excessive rains.
4. Every day, at least for a short period, to ask God's protection in the home and on members of the family.
5. To prevent discord, hatred, and ill-will.
6. In times of doubt, distress, and difficulty.
7. When a child is born.
8. When in danger from fire or flood.
9. In times of persecution.
10. Burning constantly at the bedside of the dying.
11. For the relief of the Souls in Purgatory.

Prayer to Our Lady of Lourdes

Composed by Pope Pius XII

Immaculate Virgin of Lourdes, in compliance with thy loving invitation, we kneel before thee in the lowly grotto where thou didst appear in order to point out the way of prayer and penance to those who had strayed, and to distribute to those sorely beset by bitter anguish the graces and marvels of thy queenly bounty.

Accept, compassionate Queen, the praise and prayers which all peoples and nations address to thee with confidence.

O shining vision of Paradise, dispel the shadows of error from our minds with the light of Faith. O mystical Rose, comfort dejected souls with the heavenly fragrance of Hope. O inexhaustible source of life-giving waters, refresh our barren hearts with the waves of Divine Love.

Grant that we, thy children, strengthened in affliction, protected in danger, supported in our struggles, may so love and serve thy Divine Son as to merit eternal joys at the foot of thy heavenly throne. Amen.
