

“Stations of the Cross” reflections for the days of Quinquagesima and Lent

Monday - Wednesday

Teach me, when blamed, to silent be
That I may more resemble Thee.

Thursday - Saturday

O Lord, the cross Thou gavest me
I want to bear for love of Thee.

Prayers of Saint Bernadette:

“O Jesus, give me, I pray ...the bread of humility,
the bread of obedience, the bread of charity,
the bread of strength to break my will,
and make it one with yours,
the bread of patience
to bear the pain my heart endures,
the bread to see You and You alone in all things and always!”

“I put my hope in You, Lord. Be my house of refuge because You are my strength.”

“He is sufficient for me ...
Jesus alone for riches.”

Saint Bernadette, favored seer of Lourdes, died April 15, 1879.

“Her most tortuous hours were between 11am and 3pm, corresponding with Jesus' last agony. With her failing hand she took the crucifix which lay upon her heart and raising it to her lips, kissed twice over tenderly and slowly the five most Sacred Wounds of our Savior Jesus. After the 3:00 hour, she entered her final agony.

“The Mother of Sorrows present on Golgotha was undeniably present at the agony of this child, whom she loved and to whom she had promised happiness, not in this world but in the world to come. And Bernadette spoke to her. In a clear voice she repeated with emphasis, ‘Holy Mary, Mother of God pray for me, a poor sinner. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for me a poor sinner.’

“All was not yet over. With an expressive gesture, for her breath was so far gone that her voice could no longer be heard, she said, ‘I am athirst’...She drank a few drops, they wiped her lips, and then bending her head, she breathed forth her soul to God.”

Prayer

Lenten Abstinence

Everyone over 7 years of age is bound to observe the law of abstinence.

1. Complete abstinence is to be observed on Fridays, Ash Wednesday, and Holy Saturday. On days of complete abstinence, meat and soup or gravy made from meat may not be used at all.
2. Partial abstinence is to be observed on Ember Wednesday (Feb 25) and Saturday (Feb 28). On days of partial abstinence, meat and soup or gravy made from meat may be taken only once a day at the principal meal.

Lenten Fast

Everyone 21 - 59 years of age is bound to observe the law of fast.

1. All the days in Lent except Sundays are days of fast.
2. On days of fast, only one full meal is allowed. Two other meatless meals, sufficient to maintain strength, may be taken according to one's needs, but together they should not equal another full meal.
3. Meat may be taken at the principal meal except on Fridays, Ash Wednesday, and Holy Saturday.
4. Eating between meals is not permitted, but liquids, including milk and fruit juices, are allowed.
5. Where health or ability to work would be seriously affected, the law does not oblige. In doubt concerning fast or abstinence, a parish priest or confessor should be consulted.
