*O little strand of Rosary beads,
as plain as plain can be,
Only God in Heaven knows
how dear they are to me.
I have them always with me,
at every step I take,
In the evening when I slumber,
in the morning when I wake.
In bright and cloudy weather;
in sunshine or in rain,
In happiness or sorrow,
in pleasure or in pain.
It helps me in my struggle, it reproves me when I sin,
Its look of gentle patience rebukes the strife within.
In days of pain and anguish, the greatest help I knew
Was to hold onto my Rosary beads, until I calmer grew.
So when the time approaches and I shall have to die.
I hope my dear sweet Rosary beads
will close beside me lie!
And may the Holy Name of Jesus
be the last dear word I say,
And kissing my sweet Rosary beads,
my soul will pass away.*

ANNOUNCEMENTS

- Thank You! To all who assisted in highway cleanup yesterday. You are helping to create a good public image of our congregation.
- October 18: Fr Anthony Alley, ordained this past May, will be here for Sunday Mass.
- Closing hymn for October: O Queen of the Holy Rosary, p 99, #56.

Pope Pius XI instituted the feast of the Divine Maternity to commemorate the 1500th anniversary of Council of Ephesus, which defended the doctrine of the Divine Motherhood of Mary against Nestorius, who denied that in Christ there is one Divine Person with two natures. In consequence of this denial, he refused to recognize Mary by the title Theotokos: Mother of God. Nestorius and his followers falsely believed that in Christ there were two Persons — one divine and the other human, so that Mary was only the mother of the human person.

We may not find very many Nestorians today, but there are many who call themselves Christians, but who deny to the Blessed Virgin Mary this title. Let us never cease to honor the Virgin Mary, the Mother of God, especially when we repeat the Catholic Church's most ancient, simple and profound prayer to her — "Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee... Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death. Amen."

"Kindness" ~

When our divine Lord came down upon earth, He came not only to save us by shedding His Blood for us, but to teach us by His example how to cooperate with Him in extending the Kingdom of His Father. And one of the most powerful means which He employed for this purpose was kindness, gentleness, and forbearance. The goodness and kindness of God our Saviour appeared," which words show that kindness is not altogether synonymous with goodness, but is as it were, a luster, a bloom, an attraction super-added to it. The worst kinds of unhappiness, as well as the greatest amount of it, come from our conduct to each other. If our conduct, therefore, were under the control of kindness, it would be nearly the opposite of what it is, and so the state of the world would be almost reversed. "I pass through this world but once. If, therefore, there is any good that I can do, any kindness that I can show to any human being, let me do it now; let me not defer nor neglect it, for I shall not pass this way again."
