"The Power of a Smile" ~

An excellent remedy for "the blues" and preventive of dumpishness will be found in this suggestion, "Keep the corners of your mouth turned up;" in other words, keep a smile upon your lips, even when you are alone. Try it. It works like a charm. It keeps one in good spirits, and it drives the frown from other faces too. It acts like sunshine. It warms and brightens all it falls upon. A smile will suppress the angry retort that is dancing on the quivering lips. Smiling faces make a peaceful, happy home.

To be subject to low spirits is a sad liability. What can be more unkind than to communicate our low spirits to others, to go about the world like demons, poisoning the fountains of joy? So let us hide our pains and sorrows, but while we hide them, let them also be spurs within us to urge us on to all manner of overflowing kindness and sunny humor to those around us. When the very darkness within us creates a sunshine around us, then has the spirit of Jesus taken possession of our souls.

As the priest, when praying for the dead after the Consecration, bows his head, so Christ, when dying, bowed His head and descended into the depths of the kingdom of the dead, to console and deliver the just from their captivity. The priest prays for all who rest in Christ that the atoning Blood, flowing from the Eucharistic Sacrifice, may flow into Purgatory to alleviate and shorten the sufferings of the poor souls. Holy Mass is the sacrifice of the whole Church: the Church in heaven, on earth and in Purgatory. The Church is a most tender Mother. In her maternal solicitude she does not forget to pray for those who have departed this life. This strengthens our faith in the Communion of Saints and brings unspeakable relief to the members committed to expiation in the Church Suffering. At Holy Mass, when the Divine Victim is immolated upon the altar, Holy Church bids us remember those who have gone before us, signed with the sign of faith, the indelible mark of baptism, and who rest in the sleep of peace. We pray for all the souls in Purgatory, asking for all of them a place of refreshment, light, and peace - referring to the fire with which they are tormented, the darkness in which they are enveloped; and the anxieties and troubles which disturb them. We beg for succor and relief for the holy souls from the suffering by which the Justice of God expiates their sins and purifies them for eternal beatitude. Of the many ways of helping and delivering the souls in Purgatory, none is so sure and so effectual as the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. The Church declares: "... the souls detained in Purgatory are helped by the suffrages of the faithful, but principally by the acceptable Sacrifice of the Altar." St Thomas: "By no other oblation can the souls in Purgatory be more speedily released than by the Sacrifice of the Mass."

Pray for the living: those affected by floods in Nepal, Kramer family, Joan Taber, Jayme Shedenhelm, Mark Narlesky, Jones family, Amaranta Torres Rodriguez, Cecilia Rodriguez and baby, Melvin Geckle, Joe Dias, Mickey Ellis, Shelby Littlejohn, Don & Babette Lobban, Gil Credeur, Diane & John Pawlowski, Luis Martinez, Kristine Neal

"For from the rising of the sun even to the going down, my name is great among the Gentiles, and in every place there is sacrifice, and there is offered to my name a clean oblation: for my name is great among the Gentiles, saith the Lord of hosts." Malachi 1:11
