Another "Preface" that warrants extra reflection – for our consolation! This from the Requiem Mass:

It is truly meet and just,
right and availing unto salvation,
that we should at all times
and in all places
give thanks unto Thee, O holy Lord, Father almighty, and everlasting God;
through Christ our Lord:
In Whom the hope of a blessed resurrection
hath shone upon us:
that those whom the certainty of dying afflicteth,
may be consoled
by the promise of future immortality.
For unto Thy faithful, O Lord,
life is changed, not taken away;
and the abode of this earthly sojourn
being dissolved,
an eternal dwelling is prepared in Heaven.
And therefore, with Angels and Archangels,
with Thrones and Dominions,
and with all heavenly hosts,
we sing a hymn to Thy glory,
saying without ceasing

Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of hosts,
Heaven and earth are filled with Thy glory.
Hosanna in the highest!

Blessed is He that cometh in the Name of the Lord:
Hosanna in the highest!

Prayers to Implore Peace

Give peace in our times, O Lord, because there is none other that fighteth for us, but only Thou, O our God.

Peace be within thy walls,

And abundance within thy towers.

Let us pray.

O God, from Whom all holy desires, all right counsels and all just works do proceed, give unto Thy servants that peace which the world cannot give, that both our hearts may be set to obey Thy commandments, and also that we, being delivered form the fear of our enemies, may pass our time, under Thy protection, in rest and quietness. Through Christ our lord. Amen.

Three years indulgence, each time.

"Exercise Your Charity in Behalf of the Poor Souls in Purgatory" ~ St Thomas declares that prayer for the dead is the most excellent of all kinds of intercessory prayer.

The holy Cure d'Ars once said: "Oh my friends, let us pray much, and let us obtain many prayers form others, for the poor dead; the good God will render us back the good we do to them a hundredfold. Ah! If everyone knew how useful this devotion to the holy souls in purgatory is to those who practice it, they would not be forgotten so often; the good God regards all that we do for them as if it were done to Himself."

On November 9 we celebrate the dedication of Our Savior, "Basilica Salvatoris". Due to a Benedictine monastery of St. John the Baptist and St. John the Evangelist which adjoined the basilica, it was later dedicated to these two saints, and is known in our times as "St. John Lateran". This is the oldest, and ranks first among the four great basilicas of Rome. The site was, in ancient times, occupied by the palace of the family of the Laterani. The palace came eventually into the hands of Constantine, the first Christian emperor... Constantine gave it to the Church, not later than about 311. From that time it was always the centre of Christian life within the city; the residence of the popes and the cathedral of Rome. The latter distinction it still holds, though it has long lost the former. Hence the proud title which may be read upon its walls, that it is "Omnium urbis et orbis ecclesiarum mater, et caput"- "Mother and Head of all churches of the City and of the World," for this church is the cathedral of Rome. It is senior in dignity to St Peter's itself.
